- CJCA News Bureau, Edmonton, Alberta, War Diary 1939-1946 - Compiled from the Files of the Canadian Press, 1947? (copy supplied from 418 "City of Edmonton" Squadron Association Archives). Readers should note that in this printed compilation some attempt was made to fit the headlines to the date an incident occurred. News reporting was not as fast then as it is today, so using this as a standard of when stories were reported may give a false impression, and the reader would be advised to check newspapers of the time to get a more accurate timeline of the reporting of events after they had occurred.
